

Alaska Division of Fire and Life Safety Office of Rural Fire Protection,

Alaska Fire Chiefs Association, and
Alaska State Firefighters Association

present

ALASKA RURAL FIRE CHIEFS CONFERENCE

In Sitka, Alaska
September 27th through September 30th, 2017

The Rural Fire Chiefs Conference is a 4 day conference designed for rural Alaska Fire Chiefs. This conference gives rural Fire Chiefs the basic knowledge to manage their local fire department, and assist them in preventing and suppressing fires in their community. The Alaska Rural Fire Chiefs Conference will run in conjunction with the Alaska State Firefighters Association/Alaska Fire Chiefs Association Annual Conference. Attendees will be registered and participate in all ASFA/AFSC Conference activities.

Topics covered this year:

- Firefighter Safety at Live Fire Incidents
- Live Fire Training Operations
- Leadership Command and Control at Live Fire Incidents
- Incident Safety Officer at Live Fire Incidents

The conference also offers the opportunity to meet Fire Chiefs and Firefighters from across the state and meet vendors and manufactures for fire equipment.

Application Process: Students must complete the 2 page application and return it to the address at the bottom of the form. Students will be selected by the Alaska Office of Rural Fire Protection. Class size is limited to 20 students on a first come, first served and cost sharing basis.

REGISTRATION FORMS DUE BY AUGUST 7, 2016

For more information contact: Alaska Office of Rural Fire Protection 907-269-6083

